

The Caledon Parent-Child Centre
Appointment of New Executive Director

Following an extensive recruitment process, to replace retiring Executive Director, Maureen Thornton, The Board of Directors of the Caledon Parent-Child Centre, is pleased to announce that Teresa Colasanti is the successful candidate. Teresa will be assuming the role of Executive Director, effective April 29, 2013.

Teresa has held the position of Manager of Community Relations and Volunteers, for the Caledon Parent-Child Centre, for the last 10 years. Teresa brings strong leadership, communications, marketing, community development and management skills to her new role and is very well-equipped to lead the Centre into the future.
