Bolton, ON - On Thursday, November 14th, 2013 agencies across Peel Region will be proudly participating in United Way Peel Region's Fall Day of Caring. This one-day event is an opportunity for corporate employees to play a direct role in community building and learn more about how their contributions to United Way support local neighbourhoods. With that in mind, Day of Caring volunteer representatives from Counterforce Corporation in Mississauga and the Region of Peel will be facilitating "Team Building" exercises for the Management and Staff at the Caledon Parent-Child Centre (CPCC) in Bolton. Shelley White, President & CEO of the United Way of Peel region will be dropping by the CPCC as well to greet the staff at CPCC and the Day of Caring volunteers.

The Caledon Parent-Child Centre is a non-profit community service organization that provides quality programs for children, parents and caregivers in Caledon and the surrounding areas. The Centre is a hub, offering an important blend of services that strengthen families and assist them in the critical role of raising young children. Services include child development opportunities, early identification of developmental concerns, referrals to specialized services and supports, and parenting education. The Caledon Parent-Child Centre is a registered charitable corporation, a member of the Canadian Association of Family Resource Programs, and a designated Ontario Early Years Centre.
