SUMMER FUN AND LEARNING FOR FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN

Bolton, ON – Come in from the heat for some Summer fun and learning at the Caledon Parent-Child Centre (CPCC) at various locations in Bolton and Caledon beginning on July 2nd. Parents and caregivers with young children can take part in a wide variety of free programs and activities. Group sizes may be limited, therefore, daily sign-in will take place on a first come, first served basis. Programs offered this summer include: Infant Mother Goose or Shake Rattle & Roll, Creative Kids, Move & Groove, Play & Learn, Getting Ready for School, Family Mother Goose, Let's Get Physical, Exploring Our World and Getting Ready for School.

Family Time drop-in is available five days a week at the main site in Bolton and the mobile unit will be visiting parks throughout rural Caledon all summer long. For more information on the Summer schedule, including detailed program descriptions, visit www.cp-cc.org or call 905-857-0090.

The CPCC/OEYC is a non-profit community service organization that provides support, resources, and education that strengthen families and promote the optimal development of children. Parents and caregivers with young children can access a variety of free child development programs, family support services and helpful information on parenting.
