Southfields and Anthem community members invited to register for Focus Groups

Bolton, ON – The Caledon Parent-Child Centre (CPCC) is excited to announce that they will be offering programs and services in Southfields Community Centre in 2020. A series of focus groups are being arranged to meet directly with parents, grandparents and caregivers of children 0 to 6 years regarding program and service needs in the community.

CPCC has offered programs and services in the Caledon area since 1987. Its mission is to provide support, resources and education that strengthen families and promote the optimal development of children.

The first focus group is being held on Thursday, October 17 from 9:30 – 11:30a.m. at the Southfields' Temporary Storefront, 12560 Kennedy Road, Caledon for any parents, grandparents or caregivers who would like input into the early years programs and services offered to families living in the Anthem and Southfields Village communities.

A second focus group for area fathers and grandfathers will be held on Thursday, November 7 from 6:30 – 8:30p.m. at Mayfield Community Centre, 12087 Bramalea Road, Caledon East. A third focus group for newcomers in the Southfields community is currently being organized and a date will be announced soon. Watch the CPCC website for details (www.cp-cc.org)

Space in the focus groups is limited so register early by contacting Nayar Consulting at radha@nayarconsulting.ca or call 416-995-3271.

Snacks, refreshments and giveaways will be provided.
